A terracotta baluster vase...With a glossy black glaze...From the 1930s...With a stamp on the bottom serving as the signature...By a Japanese artisan potter...In very good condition with just a few small scratches in one spot (see photo)...No problem...In fact, they're hard to see...And a few manufacturing flaws...For your information, black is usually reserved for lacquer....The glaze appears slightly grainy to the eye but not to the touch...There's a slight difference in shade on the shower base...!Weight... 1 kilo 676
