Description

Oil on canvas depicting a salt worker harvesting salt in a Guérande salt marsh. She is accompanied by a child; a little further away, a salt merchant is transporting salt on horseback, while another salt worker carries the harvested salt to pile it onto a "mulon" (pile of salt). A rare subject in genre painting, rendered with great attention to warm tones and light. Gilded wooden frame with decorative elements. Old inscription on the back, partially legible. Period: Restoration or Louis-Philippe. Condition: Very good. Dimensions: unframed 27 x 21 cm (framed 37 x 32 cm). Shipping costs are not included.
