Description

A magnificent Scandinavian sideboard of Danish origin, manufactured by P.T. Aalborg in the 1960s. This piece stands out for its understated and elegant design, its perfectly balanced lines, and the quality of its teak craftsmanship. The carved solid-wood handles, integrated into the doors and drawers, are particularly refined and showcase the Danish cabinetmaking expertise of that era. The sideboard offers ample storage space with four drawers and three doors concealing several compartments and shelves. It rests on tapered legs typical of 1960s Scandinavian design. The piece is stamped "Made in Denmark - P.T. Aalborg"
