

Portrait Of A French Brig By Antoine Roux (sr.)

1 350 EUR

Signature : Antoine Roux

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Water color

Description

Presumed portrait of the French brig Saint-Louis at Gorée, Watercolor over ink line drawing, bearing an old inscription dated May 20, 1838. Signed and dated in the lower right corner. A side view of a French two-masted square-rigged brig, fully sailed, underway. A classic, refined, and elegant composition, characteristic of the ship portraits executed by Antoine Roux Sr. The inscription at the bottom appears to identify the vessel as the Saint-Louis à Gorée and mentions a maiden voyage to Saint-Louis, Senegal. Condition: pinholes, a few scratches, and sun damage. Dimensions (framed): 54 × 70 cm
