Description

Late 18th-century Romagna-style wardrobe/pantry, made of walnut. A significant wardrobe of Faenza origin, intact and retaining its original patina. The beautiful Louis XVI design is characterized by paneling on the front and sides, delicate pilasters with simple capitals, and slender spike legs. Last but not least, it features carefully selected walnut and a double lock with period keys. Dimensions (cm): W 168 (185 including frame), D 58, H 225.
