Description

Jean Raminintsoa (1899-1986) Harvest Scene in Madagascar Oil on canvas, signed lower left. A beautiful composition by the Malagasy painter Jean Raminintsoa depicting a harvest scene bathed in warm light. Two farmers, busy with the harvest, move through a vast landscape where sheaves of rice dot the plain. The sky, with its threatening clouds, contrasts with the golden hues of the fields, lending the scene an atmosphere that is both peaceful and vibrant. Jean Raminintsoa is one of the most renowned Malagasy painters of the 20th century. His work highlights the landscapes, rural scenes, and traditions of Madagascar with a luminous palette and a sensitive touch. His paintings authentically depict daily life on the island and are now sought after by collectors. The artwork is presented in an
