220 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Silver metal

Length : 27 cm

Description

A magnificent letter opener with a design that blends naturalism and Art Nouveau, likely dating from the very end of the 19th century. It is crafted from a white metal, similar to nickel silver, and is finished in silver and gold. This letter opener is very large and heavy; its etched design features a lush botanical motif animated by flowers, birds, and butterflies against a gold background. It is a magnificent piece, which unfortunately is not signed or hallmarked to allow for identification but is reminiscent of the engraving work of silversmiths such as Henri Gabert or Alphonse Debain. 27 cm long 223 grams Good condition. Minor signs of wear. In-person pickup in Paris or insured Colissimo shipping. France: 15EUR Europe: 20EUR Worldwide: 35EUR
