Description

A charming first cup for a young child, made of solid silver. The cup has a flat bottom, the interior of which is decorated with a little boy playing on all fours. The body is plain silver with a bear cub crafted using the repoussé technique. A handle provides a secure grip for small hands that are still sometimes clumsy. The timbale is hallmarked: . 935 for the silver fineness.

"PV1" --to be identified. A "radiating" hallmark, likely a silversmith's mark, to be identified. This is a 20th-century foreign piece. A very cute little goblet, ideal as a child's first cup to help them develop an appreciation for beauty. 6.7 cm tall 7.5 cm in diameter 93 grams net. Very good condition. Minor scratches from normal use. Pickup in Paris or shipping via insured Colissimo. France:
