

Iridescent Vase With Poppy Design. Legras

800 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Glass paste

Description

A design featuring poppy flowers, crafted from blown glass and featuring multi-layered acid-etched work by master glassmaker François-Théodore Legras (1839-1916) of the Nancy School in Lorraine, eastern France. This multi-layered pâte de verre vase was made in the very early 20th century at the Legras & Cie crystal factory in Montjoye, France. The vase is over 100 years old! The design is thoroughly documented and illustrated in the famous Répertoire Raisonné Legras "Verrerie Artistique et Populaire Française." The vase is neither signed nor stamped. Height: 15.5 cm

Dealer

ALLYRE ANTIK

Faïence, Porcelaine, objets curiosités

Mobile : 0680281072

5 rue de cande

Joué-lès-Tours 37300