

19th-century French Walnut Hall Bench With Rush Seat

2 800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Walnut

Length : 176

Height : 96.5

Depth : 66

Description

Charming 19th-Century French Walnut Radassier with Thick Rush Seat A particularly attractive mid-19th-century French radassier (ladder-back bench), handcrafted from solid walnut with a thick rush seat, made in Provence near Avignon circa 1850. This double-armed Provençal bench comfortably seats three and features an elegant ladder-back design, combining simplicity with refined rustic charm. The original patina on the walnut and the intact, beautifully aged thick rush seat give the piece great character, while it remains in good, solid condition throughout. Of very good quality and an excellent, practical size, it makes a real statement in any room. Perfect for an entryway or mudroom, along a kitchen wall, at the foot of a bed, or as a distinctive dining bench beside a table. Seat height is 41 cm. The design

Dealer

Anthony Short Antiques

18C & 19C Fine Period Antiques, Decorative Furniture & Works of Art

Tel : 00 44 7595603348

Mobile : 00 44 7595603348

Market Square

Petworth GU28 0AH

is particularly unusual compared to other examples, giving it a distinctive presence and making it a highly decorative yet functional piece of country house furniture. Equally at home in a period interior or providing a striking contrast in a contemporary setting, this 19th-century French radassier is a true collector's piece, combining charm, warmth, and quality.