French art history. Work Details Artist: Jean Lurçat, a central figure in the renaissance of contemporary tapestry. Weaving Workshop: PINTON Frères, a guarantor of quality and time-honored craftsmanship in Aubusson. Title: Les Coqs (Symbol of dawn, vitality, and France). Impressive Dimensions: 300 cm × 155 cm (Width × Height), ideal for a large wall, a private collection, or an institutional space. A Symbolic and Vibrant Design The work stands out for its signature Lurçat style, blending primal power with sophisticated composition. The motif centers on two proud, stylized roosters, framed by lush, golden foliage. Striking Contrast: The light background, crisscrossed by undulating rays of bright yellow sunlight, contrasts powerfully with a dramatic upper-right corner evoking a stormy night sky--a recurring theme in Lurçat's work symbolizing the cycle of life, light, and darkness. Masterful Color Palette: The use of earthy tones, rich greens, deep reds, and vibrant yellows--typical of Lurçat's simplified "carton"--gives the tapestry unparalleled visual texture and depth. This is a rare opportunity to acquire a museum-quality work by one of the greatest names in 20th-century art, in remarkable condition.
