Description

Rare 19th-century Flemish tapestry - Wolf-hunting scene in the 16th-century style (95 x 160 cm) - Ref. No.: 1687A distinctive piece that retains its historic charm. Succumb to the timeless charm of this magnificent Flemish tapestry woven in the 19th century. Crafted with remarkable finesse, it perfectly embodies the great tradition of 16th-century Flemish workshops, faithfully reproducing the aesthetic codes, color palette, and iconography of the Renaissance. A rich and dynamic iconography. The work depicts a captivating scene of a wolf hunt in the heart of a lush forest. In the center, a group of hunters in Renaissance-era costumes leads the chase, accompanied by a pack of vigorous hunting dogs. In the foreground, the wolf is depicted amid lush vegetation and finely
