Description

Made of pure white linen damask, this set of napkins for 12 place settings is monogrammed with the initials B-E and features a rich design of blooming daisies, framed by a four-bordered frieze. The initials, executed in padded satin stitch, are embroidered within a central medallion, depicted as a wreath of open and budding wild rose blossoms. The fabric is of very fine quality, with a design that shimmers in both natural and artificial light. White embroidery with generous relief. Antique linen, washed and ironed. ?
