Description

19th-century Aubusson tapestry - Foliage with a hunting scene - Floral design - 200 × 157 cm -

Ref. No.: 1699An elegant 19th-century tapestry depicting a lush landscape enlivened by a hunting scene, in the grand tradition of French tapestry workshops. The composition depicts a horseman in hot pursuit of a wild boar, accompanied by hunting dogs, in the heart of a wooded landscape crossed by a stream. In the background, romantic ruins lend depth and character to the overall scene. The rich border is adorned with an abundant garland of flowers and fruit, harmoniously framing the central scene. The soft tones of green, brown, ivory, and pink give this tapestry a timeless charm, making it ideal for adorning a large wall in a classic interior, a home with character, or a high-end decorating
