Description

French work from the second half of the 19th century. Carved and gilded wood. Elegant French frame in carved, molded, and gilded wood, crafted in the style of Neo-Louis XIII pieces, which enjoyed great decorative success during the Second Empire. The molding features a rhythmic pattern of wavy fluting, alternating with beaded moldings and fine engraved motifs, all enlivened by a rich succession of projections that lend depth and relief to the composition. The gilding, now weathered by time, retains a beautiful antique appearance and particularly highlights the sculpture's three-dimensional forms. With its balanced proportions and understated yet refined decoration, this frame is particularly well-suited for paintings from the Flemish, Dutch, or French schools of the 17th
