Description

Pair of imposing sideboards or chests of drawers with doors, in the Louis XVI style. Curved on all sides. Carrara marble top with a recessed edge, 3 cm thick. Extensive gilded bronze trim, featuring busts of a woman and a man at the top of the side panels. Each piece opens with two doors; one of them has drawers in the center section. Made of mahogany and flamed mahogany veneer. Original finish in good condition; however, there are two small areas of wear on the finish (see photos). Good household condition. 20th-century period.
