Description

An elegant pair of cement greyhounds, dating back about fifty years and in excellent condition. Having always been kept under cover, they have suffered neither weather damage nor the ravages of time. Their slender, elegant lines add timeless charm and character to any setting. They would look perfect flanking the entrance to a fine home, in a spacious hall or distinctive interior, atop gate piers, on a terrace or porch, or in a classically styled garden. Their original patina and harmonious proportions make them striking decorative pieces, suitable for both period and contemporary homes. Specifications: Pair of cement greyhounds. Age: approx. 50 years. Condition: excellent; always kept under cover. Sold only as a pair. A beautiful decorative feature that will bring elegance and distinction to your
