Description

A rare regulation-size billiards or snooker table made of solid oak, in the "refectory" or Jacobean style, signed by the original manufacturer, Burroughes & Watts of London. The rails are adorned with ebony inlays and openwork decorative motifs, while the legs feature relief panels. Of exceptional craftsmanship, the table is made entirely of solid English oak. Made around 1910, it features a system of crossbars connecting the legs both lengthwise and widthwise. It is equipped with "Steel Vacuum" rails for optimal ball response.
