Description

Pair of Bohemian crystal and repoussé brass ewers - Late 19th century An elegant pair of ewers from the late 19th century, crafted from ruby-red blown Bohemian crystal and finely decorated with rich gold leaf motifs depicting grape clusters and vine leaves. The repoussé and chased brass mounts display remarkable Rocaille-style craftsmanship, featuring openwork handles, ornate bases, and finely engraved spouts. This pair stands out for the deep brilliance of the crystal, the quality of its original gilding, and the delicacy of its ornamentation, reflecting the craftsmanship of Bohemian manufacturers in the late 19th century. Period: Late 19th century. Materials: Ruby-red Bohemian crystal, gold-gilded decoration, and repoussé and chiseled brass mounts. Condition: Perfect
