Description

Pair of Celadon Porcelain and Gilded Bronze Table Lamps - 19th century An elegant pair of table lamps crafted from celadon-green glazed porcelain, embellished with finely chiseled gilded bronze mounts, inspired by the refined Louis XVI style. The baluster-shaped body is decorated with polychrome reserves depicting cherubs within medallions, framed by delicate ornamental motifs in pure gold. The back features an elegant decoration with a torch and laurel wreaths--symbols of neoclassical style--executed in rich gilding. The gilded bronze bases, with their openwork and dynamic design, lend elegance and solidity to the entire piece. The pair is completed by ivory-colored fabric lampshades with a classic design, which cast a warm, soft light, making these lamps ideal for living rooms,
