Description

An elegant 19th-century solid wood shelving unit from Provence, richly carved with delicate floral motifs and musical instruments, showcasing remarkable craftsmanship. This elegant piece stands out thanks to its shaped pediment--adorned with a vase framed by floral garlands--its turned uprights, and its finely carved crossbars. The lower section features a relief carving of musical instruments surrounded by flowers, adding great charm and character to the whole. Its three tiers provide ample display space for collectibles, earthenware, antique books, or ornaments. Its aged patina and beautiful, warm hue highlight the piece's authenticity. Specifications: Period: 19th century. Origin: Provence. Material: Carved solid wood. Decoration: Small flowers, Medici vase, and musical instruments. Dimensions: 140 × 87 ×
