Description

Oil on canvas signed "Clément Quinton" lower left, titled "Coucher de soleil, un soir d'orage" (Sunset on a Stormy Evening). The work depicts a vast plain at dusk: a turbulent sky, pierced with breaks of golden and pink light above the horizon, rises over a darkened countryside where a small team of animals can be made out. A composition at once powerful and sensitive, with fine handling and a twilight glow, characteristic of Quinton's art and his roots in the Barbizon School. Frame: 40 x 59 cm Artwork: 25,5 x 44 cm Clément Quinton (Paris, 1851 - Saint-Maur-des-Fossés, 1921), sometimes recorded as Clément-Henri or Charles-Henri Quinton, was a French landscape painter and engraver, a pupil of Léonard Saurfelt. He debuted at the Salon des Artistes Français in 1879, won
