Carved wooden panel, 19th century
This panel depicts Saint Philomena in low relief. The young martyr is identifiable by the accompanying anchor, the instrument with which she was reportedly cast into the Tiber. The scene is set within an architectural framework featuring an arch supported by two columns. Floral motifs adorn the upper corners. Good overall condition, some minor losses, wormholes in the lower left section (see photos).
Height: 39.5 cm
Width: 32 cm
Relief section: 31.2 cm x 24.8 cm
