Description

Louis XV-style lacquered wood bergère - Cabriolet armchair with removable cushion
A charming Louis XV-style bergère made of molded and lacquered wood, featuring elegant and generous lines. Its undulating backrest, curved armrests, and arched legs give it all the grace of 18th-century French furniture. Fully upholstered in red fabric with scattered gold motifs, this bergère offers excellent comfort thanks to its large, removable seat cushion. Its deep seat and enveloping backrest make it an ideal armchair for a living room, library, or bedroom. The subtle carving on the waistband, armrests, and top rail highlights the finesse of the cabinetmaking, while the patina of the lacquered wood adds great charm to the piece.
