Description

Set of four religious plaster high-reliefs - Sacred Art - 19th century
A rare set of four patinated plaster high-reliefs depicting various scenes from Christian iconography. Created in a style inspired by medieval sculpture, these panels feature figures in high relief within a poly-lobed frame reminiscent of Gothic architecture. The compositions illustrate several episodes from the life of Christ and the saints, with remarkable attention to drapery, facial expressions, and volume. Their dark patina gives them the appearance of ancient wooden or stone sculptures. These pieces may have been intended to decorate a religious building, a chapel, or an educational institution, or they may have served as models for a sculpture workshop. Dimensions (each panel): Height: 55 cm Width: 55
