Description

Regency-era Arbalette chest of drawers in walnut - Marble top - Original bronze fittings An elegant Louis XIV-Louis XV-era tomb-style chest of drawers, crafted from solid walnut, exemplifying the refinement of 18th-century French cabinetmaking. Its curved front on three sides and harmonious proportions give it a powerful yet elegant silhouette. It features three large drawers flanking a central row of three false drawers adorned with superb chiseled bronze lock plates. The drawers are fitted with finely crafted gilded bronze pull handles, preserved in their original condition. The piece is topped with a veined brown marble top that perfectly follows the curves of the front. The rounded legs, refined moldings, and the warm patina of the walnut highlight the quality of this chest of drawers'
