Description

Solid Wood Filing Cabinet - Professional-Grade Furniture - Early 20th Century Authentic solid wood filing cabinet, a vintage professional-grade piece designed for storing and organizing documents, plans, or files. Its simple and functional design makes it as decorative as it is practical. The cabinet opens with two drawers in the upper section, fitted with shell-shaped handles and brass label holders. The lower section is closed by two doors concealing an ingenious interior layout consisting of numerous vertical compartments, specifically designed for filing documents, as well as a lower shelf providing additional storage space. The top surface, slightly sloped like a writing desk, allowed users to review or prepare documents. Its clean lines and high-quality craftsmanship make it suitable today
