

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Empire-style Bookcase In Flamed Mahogany - Gilded Bronze - Four Doors

2 300 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Mahogany

Width : 216

Height : 192

Depth : 42

Description

Empire-style bookcase in flamed mahogany - Gilded bronze - Four doors - Early 20th century
An exceptional Empire-style bookcase in flamed mahogany, exemplifying all the majesty and elegance of early 19th-century French furniture. Its symmetrical design, accentuated by wood with spectacular grain, is enhanced by remarkable chiseled and mercury-gilded bronze trim. The central section opens with two glass-paned doors, revealing several shelves designed to hold books, objets d'art, or collections. On either side, two solid doors conceal ample storage space, offering ideal functionality while preserving the harmony of the façade. The side panels are adorned with gilded bronze caryatids, while the side doors are decorated with superb sconces featuring lyres and

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huis laurent

Dun les Places 58230

palmettes, emblematic of the Empire style. The legs are topped with bronze lion's paws, lending the piece both power and refinement. With its generous dimensions, high-quality cabinetry, and rich ornamentation, this bookcase is a prestigious piece suitable for an office, a library, or a reception room.

Dimensions: Height: 192 cm Width: 216 cm Depth: 42 cm

Key features: Authentic Empire-style bookcase Flamed mahogany Four doors (two glass-paned and two solid) Numerous storage shelves Chiseled and mercury-gilded bronze fittings Bronze caryatids and lyre motifs Lion-claw feet Exceptional quality of cabinetmaking Excellent condition Rare for its proportions and the richness of its decoration, this Empire-style bookcase is a collector's piece that will appeal to enthusiasts of First Empire furniture and lend an exceptional presence to any interior with character.