Description

Here is a pair of Louis XVI-style crystal chandeliers. These chandeliers feature a central baluster-shaped stem made of blue glass, topped with a crown. They feature 12 light arms and are adorned with four cut-crystal daggers topped with a plume. The entire piece is decorated with garlands of pearls, flowers, and cut-crystal pendants. They are topped with a cut crystal ball (which had not yet been attached and is not visible in the photo). They are wired for electricity.
