Description

A beer mug made of thick glass, decorated with polychrome glazes applied cold and then fired to set them. The decoration features a garland of green leaves surrounding a scroll with blue and orange accents, in the center of which appears the inscription "Josef Vojáček," rendered in cursive calligraphy. This type of personalization--the owner's name painted in enamel--is characteristic of Central European artisanal productions from the late 19th and early 20th centuries. In good overall condition, with slight signs of wear consistent with its age.
