Description

A striking example of contemporary French crystal craftsmanship, this elegant Saint Louis blue overlay crystal perfume bottle dates from 1998 and showcases the renowned manufacturer's exceptional expertise in color and cutting. Crafted using the traditional overlay crystal technique, a rich layer of deep cobalt blue crystal has been expertly cut back to reveal the clear crystal beneath, creating dramatic oval windows that capture and reflect light with remarkable brilliance. The bottle is fitted with its original clear crystal stopper, perfectly complementing the refined design while preserving its sculptural harmony. The underside bears the Saint Louis France signature with the 1998 date, confirming its authenticity and production year. This model, often referred to as the "Eau de Saint Louis"
