

Openwork, Teardrop-shaped Bowl, Paris Porcelain Gilded With Gold, Empire/restoration Period

380 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Beautiful openwork bowl / decorative openwork basket in a teardrop shape, made of Paris porcelain, France, 19th century, Restoration period--Charles X (1820-1830). Beautiful bright gold gilding (polished with agate). A beautiful, large piece, highly decorative. Ideal for displaying fruit on a dining room table or for adorning a mantelpiece or dresser alongside candlesticks, or to form a complete set. Our bowl is in very good condition, with extremely fresh gilding and only slight signs of wear. No damage to the porcelain or the openwork sections. Length: 27cm Width: 15 cm Height: 24 cm

Dealer

GSLR Antiques

French Antiques - 18th to 20th century.

Mobile : +33658910924

4 rue Vicat

Grenoble 38 000