Description

Freestanding bookcase made by AV Arredamenti Contemporanei in the 1960s, in teak veneer. This piece has been carefully restored, bringing back the original beauty of the wood and the functionality of the design. The brass and enameled metal details add a touch of elegance and refinement, while the shelves and storage compartments are adjustable, allowing for customization of the space as needed. The structure is ideal for placing in the center of a room, serving as a functional divider. The essential design and quality of the materials used make this bookcase a representative example of 1960s Italian design. Product Condition: This product has been restored by the experts in our restoration laboratory. We strive to present the item's actual condition as accurately as possible
