

Neoclassical Rose Gold Bangle Bracelet With Nicolo Engravings By Pierre Jacques Meurice

7 900 EUR

Signature : Pierre Jacques Meurice

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Description

Rare semi-hinged opening bangle in 18K rose gold (hallmark: ram's head and owl), adorned with two-layer nicolo agate intaglios depicting Bacchus on a rock with an amphora and a cup, two female profiles, and a Cupid. Early 19th-century work, Neoclassical style, circa 1819-1838, attributed to Pierre Jacques Meurice, father-in-law of François-Désiré Froment-Meurice. Many thanks to Jean-Jacques Richard for his assistance in authenticating the maker of this bracelet. Gross weight: 23.01 g Inner circumference: 15.00 cm Height of the motif: 3.70 cm Condition: very slight micro-scratches and oxidation on the gold parts; see photos.

Dealer

GALERIE PENELOPE

Bijoux anciens

Mobile : 07 56 99 58 05

Paris 75017