Description

Oak Craftsman's Workbench 19th Century A beautiful and authentic solid oak craftsman's workbench dating from the 19th century. Remarkably understated, it captivates with its balanced proportions, the quality of its traditional joinery, and its magnificent patina acquired over the decades. Its thick worktop, deeply marked by the traces of use, bears witness to long service in a workshop. It retains its original wrought-iron clamp handle as well as its lower shelf, providing practical storage space while reinforcing its structure. Every mark of wear, every notch, and every nuance of its wood tells the story of a piece of craft furniture that has stood the test of time with its authenticity intact. Today, this workbench will naturally find its place in a home with character, serving as a console table, sideboard,
