Description

A truncated conical glass goblet with polychrome enamel decoration featuring a heraldic lion, a frieze, and flower stems, along with a dated motto in German. Switzerland--probably Flühli, 1744. Dimensions: height 9.3 cm--diameter at the rim 8.4 cm. Very good overall condition, no cracks, no chips. Slight damage to the decoration in places. The date, combined with the heraldic lion decoration--rarely seen on 18th-century Swiss enameled goblets--makes this piece particularly interesting.
