Description

COD 01226 An elegant Italian painting from the second half of the 19th century. Oil on canvas artwork signed P. Massani on the lower right, attributed to Pompeo Massani (1850-1920), a refined Florentine painter known for his genre scenes, portraits, and historical and allegorical compositions. The artwork, titled "Victory," depicts a striking classical allegory in which a young female figure raises a statuette of the winged Nike before two warriors, ideally celebrating the hero's valor and triumph. The composition is striking for its balanced horizontality and refined theatrical setting. The light enhances the female figure, highlighting her delicate complexion and exquisite draperies, while the warriors' burnished armor introduces a striking chromatic contrast. The rendering of the fabrics, the atmospheric nuances of the landscape in the background, and the elegance of the expressions are all of remarkable quality, elements that testify to the artist's full artistic maturity. Artwork of great decorative and collectible appeal, representative of the allegorical style of 19th-century Italian painting, particularly suitable for important classical or contemporary settings, professional studios, libraries, or historic homes. The spectacular 20th-century gilded wood frame shows some signs of aging. The painting has already been restored with re-lining, replacement of the stretcher, and recoloring in small areas. Overall, in good condition. Internal dimensions: H 45.5 x W 101.5 cm. As each of our products it will be accompanied by a certificate of authenticity and guarantee with photographic documentation.
