Description

An elegant pair of vintage drop earrings crafted in 18-karat gold and embellished with approximately 1.50 carats of old-cut diamonds and two natural baroque pearls. The upper part of each earring features a refined composition of elongated elements, inspired by delicate leaves, finely set with old-cut diamonds. The old cut gives the stones a soft, romantic brilliance that harmonizes perfectly with the warm hue of the gold. Suspended from the lower part are two striking natural baroque pearls, each characterized by a unique irregular shape, an organic surface, and delicate pearlescent reflections. The contrast between the refined gold and diamond craftsmanship and the natural character of the pearls creates an elegant and sophisticated piece of jewelry. The elongated
