Description

Gallotti & Radice An Italian design firm founded in 1955 by Pierangelo Gallotti and Luigi Radice. The company is best known for being one of the first in Italy to promote the use of glass in contemporary furniture. As early as the 1960s and 1970s, the brand began developing tables, console tables, bookcases, and lighting fixtures that combined glass with polished metal, brass, or chrome, creating an elegant and minimalist aesthetic. Riki T52 rolling side table. Frame in polished chrome-plated brass. Two 8mm clear glass shelves. Italy, 1970. H 69 x W 82 x D 38 cm
