Description

A beautiful gouache signed by Roger Kérinec (1917-2001) depicting a constructed Breton landscape. Graphic in style, with a gestural quality enhanced by black highlights, the work creates a particularly dynamic landscape in original hues: deep blue, anise yellow-green, and orange (though these colors may be slightly distorted by the reflections on the glass in our photos). The composition is structured around a series of diagonals that give the painting rhythm and guide the viewer's interpretation. A Breton artist, Roger Kérinec is known for his gouaches and watercolors on regional themes, created in a distinctive style and, above all, with a personal color palette. The work is in very good condition; here are its dimensions: unframed: 64 cm x 45 cmframed: 76 x 59 cm.
