Description

Ulpiano Checay Sanz (1860-1916): "The Ox Cart," watercolor, 30 × 43 cm, mounted on pH-neutral board under museum-grade glass in a molded wooden frame, 50 × 65 cm. Signed, dated 1909, and located in Ávila, it features on the reverse a pencil study of two Roman women on a terrace. The artist, a virtuoso celebrated in Spain, France, and Argentina alike, presents us here with a snapshot of peasant life in central Spain : under a blazing sun, a peasant protected by a large hat and a blanket guides his cart at the slow pace of his oxen.
