Description

Oil on Panel -- Eugène Galien-Laloue (1854-1941), signed under the pseudonym L. Dupuy? An antique painting signed "Dupuy" lower right, a well-documented pseudonym of Eugène Galien-Laloue (1854-1941), a French painter renowned for his lively Belle Époque urban scenes. Like many artists bound by exclusive dealer contracts, Galien-Laloue signed part of his output under assumed names, with "L. Dupuy" being one of the best-known and most frequently encountered at public auction.? A pupil of landscape painter Léon Germain Pelouse (Barbizon School), Galien-Laloue exhibited at the Salon des Artistes Français from 1877 onwards. His works are held today in the collections of several French museums, notably the museums of La Rochelle and Mulhouse, as well as the Galerie
