Description

A bustling street scene in front of a mosque in Istanbul was painted around the 1920s by the Franco-Polish Orientalist painter Jozef Pawlikiewicz, who traveled to Turkey, where he created numerous views of Istanbul at the turn of the 20th century. His watercolors of Istanbul are regularly sold at Polish and French auctions.
