3 800 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wood marquetry

Description

An elegant Louis XV-era chest of drawers with four drawers arranged in three rows. It is inlaid with rosewood and violetwood marquetry featuring a herringbone scroll pattern, and richly adorned with original chiseled and gilded bronze fittings: drawer pulls, lock plates, feet, and lamp bases. The top is made of veined red marble, following the curved shape of the front. Its harmonious proportions, the delicacy of the marquetry, and the quality of the bronze fittings make this a piece of great refinement. Period: 18th century Style: Louis XV Materials: Precious wood marquetry, gilded bronze, and marble top Configuration: 4 drawers Condition: Very good overall condition, beautiful patina, and finely preserved bronze fittings. An elegant 18th-century French chest of drawers, ideal for a
