Description

A charming 18th-century English oak folding table known as a Gateleg. A very beautiful small table featuring a superb, rare turned base and a drawer in the apron. A leg mechanism unfolds to allow the flaps to open. The table can be used as an open dining table or as a decorative piece, as a small closed console table, or as a half-open half-moon table. It has a beautiful patina and is in superb condition. Closed dimensions: 45 cm. Delivery available in Belgium, France, and internationally. On display in our 2,500-square-meter showroom at 41 Rue Henri Wafelaerts, 1060 Brussels, Belgium. More information and photos available upon request.
