Description

Magnificent bust of Marie Antoinette. Late 18th century, Carrara marble. Sculpture carved from marble. Dimensions: 94 x 50 x 32 cm. This life-size bust depicts Marie Antoinette, her head elegantly turned and her expression serene, highlighting the finesse of the facial modeling and the delicacy of her features. Her elaborate hairstyle, meticulously detailed with curls and floral ornaments, reflects the court fashion of the era. She wears a wide draped gown with a soft neckline, adorned with a relief medallion that adds a touch of iconographic refinement. The polished surface of the marble enhances the softness of the skin tones and the overall sense of nobility. The work is part of the neoclassical aesthetic of the late 18th century, in which the idealization of forms and the balance of the
