Description

An elegant pair of ebony chests of drawers from the early 20th century, combining luxurious materials with refined, French-inspired craftsmanship. Featuring marble tops, gilded bronze ornamentation, and brass marquetry, these impressive chests of drawers embody the refinement of the Neo-Louis XV and Louis XVI styles, which were highly prized during the Belle Époque. Each chest of drawers is finished with a rich ebony veneer, offering a striking contrast to the delicacy of the gilded bronze ornamentation and decorative brass trim. The elegant proportions are enhanced by superb brass marquetry, which adds sophistication and visual depth to the design. The tops are covered with magnificent marble slabs, framed by decorative gilt-bronze moldings that emphasize the luxurious character of the piece. The warm tones of the gilded bronze harmonize perfectly with the dark ebony wood, creating a timeless and sophisticated look. These pieces offer generous storage space while serving as elegant decorative objects. They fit perfectly into a bedroom, living room, entryway, library, or any refined interior, where they can be arranged in a symmetrical pair on either side of a fireplace, a door, or a large mirror. Combining exceptional decorative appeal with high-quality craftsmanship and fine materials, this pair is an excellent example of early 20th-century European cabinetmaking. Origin: France Period: Early 20th century Materials: Ebonized wood, marble, gilded bronze, and brass inlays Dimensions (each): Height: 125 cm Width: 85 cm Depth: 57 cm Condition: Very good antique condition. Slight signs of wear consistent with its age and use. The marble tops, gilded bronze mounts, and brass inlays are well preserved, and the ebonized finish has acquired a beautiful patina.
