

Antique Blown-glass Vase From Bohemia, Made By The Zelc Glassworks, Dated 1887.

250 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Glass

Width : 8 cm

Height : 10,5 cm

Description

A white-glazed glass jar with a slightly flared body, a gold rim, and a red/coral interior. The decoration, hand-painted and hand-printed in polychrome, includes two variations: the inscription "Zelc" in orange Gothic script, with the date "1887" rendered in stylized lettering with double-height numerals; and a crowned heraldic coat of arms: a count's crown (with nine pearls alternating with fleurons, surmounted by a globe with a cross) above an orange shield bearing three curved white elements arranged in a pinwheel pattern.
