Description

Anders OSTERLIND (1887-1960) Still Life with a Yellow Pitcher Oil on canvas, signed lower right. A magnificent composition by Anders Osterlind, in which the artist displays the full power of his expressionist brushwork. This still life features an elegant yellow pitcher decorated with flowers, surrounded by apples, a white drape, and various objects, set in an interior bathed in vibrant light. The color contrasts, generous impasto, and vigorous brushwork lend the work remarkable intensity and a distinctly modern feel. A leading painter of the Crozant School, Anders Osterlind is renowned for his highly personal style, blending emotion, color, and texture. Although famous for his landscapes, his still lifes are among his most sought-after works due to their rich colors and expressive
