Description

An antique Neapolitan Louis Philippe bell made of gilded and carved wood, dating from the 19th century. The bell has a domed shape and rests on a base richly crafted in the style of classical cabinetmaking. At the center of the lower band stands a finely carved mask flanked by symmetrical elements reminiscent of vine tendrils. The structure rests on four elegant, outward-curving, scroll-shaped feet that elevate the case, giving it a sense of grace and stability. General Condition: Excellent. Provenance: Naples, 19th century. Dimensions: 50x27 H70 cm. Documentation: Certificate of Authenticity. Customer Service: We are available to answer any questions or provide additional photos. Shipping: Throughout Italy, Europe, and
